

4. What is the naming convention for OBD2 approval letters and EPA Certificate of Compliance (EPA CofC)?

OBD2 Letters

OBD2_E_CY_XXX_MM_DD_YYYY.pdf

Where:

OBD2 – On-Board Diagnostic 2

E – E series letter assigned to OBD2 group

CY – 2 digit calendar year the letter was written

XXX – Letter number assigned by OBD2 group

MM_DD_YYYY – 2 digit month, 2 digit day and 4 digit year letter was signed.

This number is taken directly from the OBD2 approval letter

Example:

OBD2_E_06_067_03_15_2006.pdf

EPA Certificates

CC_XXXXXXXXXXXX_EN_MM_DD_YYYY.pdf

Where:

CC – EPA certificate of conformity

XXXXXXXXXXXX – 12 digit Test Group (engine family) name

EN – Evaporative Family Number (for families with multiple evap families, if only one family then this should be E1)

MM_DD_YYYY – 2 digit month, 2 digit day and 4 digit year CofC was signed/ or revision date

Example:

CC_6KTXC.942LC8_E1_04_13_2006.pdf (for one evap family)

CC_6KTXC.792LC8_E1_04_13_2006.pdf

CC_6KTXC.792LC8_E2_04_13_2006.pdf

Example for multiple evap families
